

The TefView menu:

Most of the functions in the menu bar are also available in the following icons:

Open tef file

Print the notation and tabs

Print Preview

Click on the Print Setup button at the top of the preview screen to open the printing options

Options

General

Switch from line mode to page mode on the screen

Turn notation on and off

Turn tabs on and off

Display

Turn note stems in tabs on and off, and switch stems up and down

Fonts

Adjust the size of the tablature numbers

Printing

Set the printing to proportional (all notes are the same distance apart) or

Measures per line (longer notes are farther apart)

Click on fit to one page

Midi Options

Change the tempo

Select a different instrument sound

Play

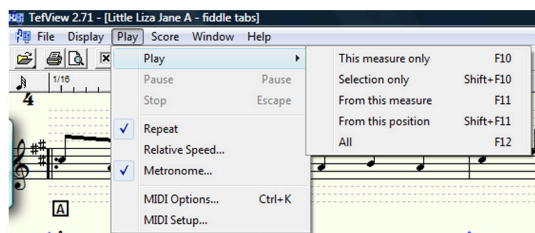

Click to start the playing of the tabs

See the PLAY MENU below to change the settings

Ruler settings (scale)

Click multiple times to spread notes apart or to make them closer together

Play menu (Not included in the Play icon)

Choose All to play the whole tune

To select specific parts of the tune, highlight them with the cursor while holding down the shift key

Then choose Selection only to hear that selection

Set the metronome on or off to hear a steady beat